Col. Shuldham

The Secretary reported that in reply to the Circular sent to the Members & others, the Hon. Secs had received promises of Donations to Show Fund which amounted to £120.

Mr. W. E. Burke, waited on the Committee with reference to the Dog Show, and the various details having been discussed it was, on the motion of Mr. MacKenzie, seconded by Colonel Shuldham,

Agreed That £10 additional should be granted to the Dog Show Committee, if they succeed in collecting £50 to add to the Prize list. If less than £50 be collected the Agricultural Society to subscribe only the same amount as that collected. Subscribers to Dog Show Fund to get a season ticket for both days for £1-Subs<sup>rs</sup>. Subscribers of 10/- to get a single admission ticket for each day.
