CHEQUES.Letter From Department of Agriculture.

R. D. S.

A letter was read from the Department of Agriculture, stating that they would contribute £20 towards prizes for Irish Draught Stallions & Hares at the forthcoming Show, under special conditions. This was considered satisfactory, and the Secretary was directed to write and thank the Department.

A communication was read from the Royal Dublin Society, stating that the Council of the Society had again agreed to the continuation of the Scheme of Premiums for Hares, and that five £12 Premiums were allocated in connection with the Society's Summer Show. The Premiums are offered under certain conditions to be complied with by the exhibitor. One Reserve Premium will be offered.

The Scheme was accepted and the best thanks of the Committee was passed to the Royal Dublin Society, and the Secretary was instructed to inquire from the Royal Dublin Society as to how the Reserve Premium would affect the owner of the Mare.
