Dear Sir,

I beg to acknowledge your kind letter of the 25th, conveying the resolution of sympathy on the death of my brother passed at the Meeting of the General Committee of the Munster Agricultural Society. I would ask you to please convey to the members of your General Committee the thanks of myself and my family for their message of sympathy.

Yours faithfully,
J. G. GREEN. (Sd.)

On the motion of Mr. A.H. Good, M.A., seconded by Mr. M.D. Hosford, the following cheques were passed:-
Electricity Supply Board £2. 2. 4;
Irish Kennel Club. £2. 2. 0;

Cheques.Question of Future Lectures discussed.

The President referred to the lectures given by the members at the various Meetings of the General Committee, and he invited suggestions as to whether these should be resumed. The members were unanimously of opinion that talks on various matters relating to agriculture, such as - "Receding of Tillage Land"; "Fertility of Soil"; "Mourning of Land"; "Ploughing in of Green Crops"; "Liquid Manuring" and other suggestions. Mr. T. O'Sullivan suggested that we should ask Professor Boyle to give us a lecture on one of these subjects, and Mr. D. Cronin stated that if we applied to Dr. Henry Kennedy, Secretary, Irish Agri. Organisation Society Ltd, Plunkett House, Dublin, we may be able to arrange for a lecture under the Barrington Trust. Such lectures should, however, be open not alone to the members of the Society but to the general public. After further discussing the matter, Mr. Cronin agreed to communicate with Dr. Kennedy, we to arrange with Professor Boyle to give a lecture at a later date - if possible at the Monthly Meeting in February.

On the motion of Mr. F. O'Sullivan, a vote of condolence was passed to the relatives of the late Mrs. Wm. Roberts, and, on the motion of Mr. E. Wall, seconded by Mr. H. Hayes, a vote of condolence was passed to the relatives of the late Mr. Wm. Richardson, who was a member of the General Committee.

The President, Mr. E.J. Clarke, thanked the Members for their attendance during the year, and said he hoped the coming year would be a better one for the Society. He (the President) wished all present the Compliments of the Season.

On the motion of Mr. N. Hayes, a hearty vote of thanks was unanimously passed to the President for the way he presided over the Society during the past year, and which he has guided so well during these very troublesome times.

Vote of thanks passed to President.President thanked Members for attendance during Year.Votes of Condolence.
