 Live Stock Breeding Act, 1925.
 Sir,

I am directed by the Minister for Agriculture to inform you that the two-year period of membership on the Live Stock Consultative Council of the representative of your Society terminated on the 23rd October last. The Minister will be glad, therefore, if you will furnish him with the names and addresses of two or three members from whom he may nominate one to act on the new Council. The representative, whose period of office has terminated is, of course, eligible for re-nomination.

Your obedient servant,
 Per Secretary. (Sd.) "
