Meeting adjourned:

It was agreed that, as some of the Judges and Veterinary Surgeons did not send in their accounts, cheques for these could be signed by the President, Hon. Secretary and Secretary when accounts had been received.

Vote of sympathy passed to Mrs. Morrison:

The President said that, after passing the cheques as recommended by the Finance Committee, they would adjourn the other business to the next Meeting of the Committee, as they had all heard of the death of their late Hon. Secretary - the late Mr. A. Morrison. Mr. N. Hayes proposed that the sympathy of the Committee be tendered to Mrs. A. Morrison on the death of the late Mr. Alex. Morrison, who was elected President of the Society in 1914, and elected Hon. Secretary in 1918, holding office until 1942. Mr. Hayes said that the late Mr. Morrison was for 50 years a Member of the Society. The vote of sympathy was seconded by Mr. T. O'Sullivan, with which the Secretary wished to be associated. The President then put the motion, all Members standing.

Mr. N. Hayes proposed that the business of the Meeting should then be adjourned to the next Meeting of the General Committee to be held on the 19th August, which was seconded by Mr. A. Millins, and passed.
