Re proposed Inter-national Horse Jumping Competition:

Arising out of the Minutes of the Show Committee, Col. S. White said he, personally, did not agree with the decision of that Committee, with regard to the International Horse Jumping Competition, in connection with An Postal, as he thought it was a golden opportunity of helping the funds of the Society, if they ran this competition, themselves. Mr. E. Wall pointed out that, having considered all aspects, they felt they were carrying out the wishes of the General body in arriving at that decision. After a discussion, the General Committee agreed to the decision of the Show Committee.
