Re loss of bull at recent Show:

Mr. M. Ryan draws attention to the fact that Mr. J.P.D. Good had lost a bull at the recent Show & Sale of Bulls, and pointed out that, if a Veterinary Surgeon had been in attendance, he would have saved this animal. Therefore, he (Mr. Ryan) proposed that a Veterinary Surgeon should be appointed by the Society during the Annual Show & Sale of Bulls in future. After a discussion, the matter was referred to the Show Committee for consideration - on the proposition of Mr. J.P. Barber, seconded by Mr. C. Donovan with the intention to print to the Planning Council of Ballinacorney for Ball of the last done by them, for Veterinary Surgeons, officiating at Agricultural Shows
