Correspondence:

The Secretary read a letter received from the Cork Co. Executive Education Committee of Macra na Feirme, stating that a Dr. C.P. McMeekan, of the Ruakura Animal Research Station, New Zealand, would give a lecture at the U.C.C. Dairy Science Theatre on Monday, April 21, and extending an invitation to the members of the Munster Agricultural Society to attend. The letter was noted. A number of invitations received with the letter were distributed amongst the members.

On the proposal of Mr. B.E. Hosford, seconded by Mr. P.J. O'Connell, the following were elected to membership of the Society:-

Vote of sympathy:

Mr. T.N. Desmond proposed that a vote of sympathy be extended to Mr. S. Murphy on the death of his brother. Mr. Desmond, in speaking, said they were all shocked at the accident, and all regretted the passing of Mr. D. Murphy under such sad circumstances.

Mr. P.J. O'Connell, in seconding the vote, said he would like to express his sympathy with Mr. Murphy in the shocking accident. The members present expressed a wish to be associated with the vote of sympathy. The President asked the members to arise as a mark of respect, and asked the Secretary to convey the vote to Mr. Murphy.
