After some consideration it was decided that the entry fee for members who paid their subscriptions before the show would be 2/6 and for non members 5/- and that an advertisement be inserted in the paper a week before the show that members who had paid their subscriptions would be admitted to free to the show yard

It was further decided that the entries close on Saturday 17th March and that the Judges were to be requested not to award a premium to any animal that did not show the characteristics of the Short-horn breed
