

General Committee

21st Sept 1889

W. G. G. in the Chair

Present

R. Newman

W. R. Meade

J. Bogue

S. Stokes Jun

J. Jones

Major Stopford

H. Reed

Read letter from the Royal Dublin Society, stating the the following gentlemen had kindly consented to act as judges of Stallions at the Show Mr J. Hare Mr J. J. Subbiss & Major Burrows

The Secretary announced that he had been unable to obtain permission to close the Yard and that it would be necessary if it was decided to make a charge for entrance to partition off a portion of the yard, this it was decided after inspecting the yard would be impracticable and the idea of charging an entrance fee was consequently abandoned

Attest. J. Foster