

- 20 Fences to be made raised
- 21 That the tent for members Refreshment be placed close to the Kitchen & Bar
- 23 That a Senior Steward be appointed in each class who shall be directly responsible to the Hon Sec
- 24 That the clerical staff be located in a room inside the Secretary's office so as to prevent the public entering it that the Secretary's office be placed immediately outside the clerks room & provided with a large window counter through which public can communicate with secretary & that this office be provided with pigeon holes for holding prize cards
That the secretary remain in his office as much as possible during the show & that a competent clerk be always stationed in Secretary's office to answer questions during the unavoidable absence of the Secretary
- 25 The Hon Sec have absolute control in carrying out the arrangements of the Committee for the management of the show That the Stewards be responsible to him for the due management of their dept That an assistant Hon Sec be appointed ~~be~~ who shall be under Hon Sec
- 26 That a charge be made for fodder & straw for horses sufficient to recoup the Society for the outlay

R. E. Longfield