The sub-committee gentlemen nominated to adjudicate on the plans for the new show yard reported that of the eight plans entered for competition they had selected two as being superior to the others namely marked respectively "Native Industry" & "Fiat Justitia Quat Coelum" & of these two they considered "Fiat Justitia Quat Coelum" was the best. It was accordingly decided on the motion of Mr French sec by Mr A Ferguson to adopt this plan. on the sealed envelope being opened by the Chairman it was found that the author of the successful design was Mr John Leslie Stanton CE Dartmouth House Upper Leeson Street Dublin. the secretary was accordingly directed to write to this gentleman & ask him to come down & meet the directors of the Company on Thursday at 2.30

It was decided to hold the annual show on Thursday & Friday 7 & 8 July
